

Dear FCC:

I am shocked at your readiness to consider transferring ownership of the public airwaves to monopoly private interests. It represents a betrayal of your stewardship of the public interest. I hope you will resist industry pressure to further consolidate ownership of stations and channels, thus further eroding public access to a variety of points of view. Irving Jacks